WANTED—Ladies to work for me, local or traveling; something new; for ladies only; $4 daily easily made; no photo, no painting; particular. Mrs. U. K. LITTLE, Jewelin, Box 445, Chicago, Ill.

George McLoughlin is the sole agent in Carson for the "New Domestic" sewing machine. A machine which is now acknowledged head of the long line of machines offered the public perfect in action noiseless and lasting.

For the best horse liniment now in the market go to Doc. Benton. It is his own make, and warranted to beat all the money brands. s4f

ALL SORTS.

—Lost—A gold fire pin. The finder will leave it at this office.

—Wanted—A girl to do general housework. Apply at this office.

—George Osborne the actor has been arrested for taking a shot at his wife.

—Who would have ever thought that Major Garrard would have joined the Mugwump party.

—Conductor Bray has been placed in charge of the local train and has moved his family to Virginia City.

—The Government will do a very foolish thing if it hangs Geronimo, it will discourage other bad Indians from surrendering.

—Just received at A. Bergman's, 25 dozen Boys' Pants from 50 cents up, also a few dozen Calico Waists, at 25 cents each. sep4f

—Judge Healey suggests that since the abdication of the Bulgarian King, there is a vacancy that might be filled by one of the lame ducks of the Elko Convention.

—The gloomy fears, the desponding views, the weariness of soul that many complain of, would often disappear were the blood made pure and healthy before reaching the delicate vessels of the brain. Ayer's Sarsaparilla purifies and vitalizes the blood; and thus conduces to health of body and sanity of mind.

—Ayer's Agree Cure, when used according to directions, is warranted, to eradicate from the system all forms of malarial disease, such as Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, Intermittent, Remittent, and Bilious Fevers and disorders of the liver. Try it. The experiment is a safe one, and will cost you nothing if a cure is not effected.

The Mountain Pink.

That the audience present at the California Theater last night appreciated the excellent performance presented was evidenced by the liberal applause bestowed upon the leading artists taking part therein. Miss Moore as the heroine was all that the part required of her, acting with that easy and refined abandon that has made Lotta famous. The story of "A Mountain Pink", depicts life among the mountains, and is full of telling situations. Coupled with her excellent qualities as an actress, Miss Moore is possessed of rare beauty. Of Mr. Varney as "Jack Weeks," we can only say that he played the part assigned him to perfection. Mr. Frank Hennig as "Harry Wilmot" also deserves special mention, as does Maud Midgley as "Nondac." Taken altogether the company is what they are represented to be; first class artists in their business and should meet with the hearty endorsement of the San Jose theater going public.—San Jose (Cal.) Mercury.

It will be in Carson on the 21st.

Let the Dead Rest.

Nothing can be gained by assailing a dead man. An attack on a tomb is always cowardly and indecent. The Wasp recently printed a caricature of the late William Sharon. Nothing can possibly be gained by such assaults, except the contempt of the living. "Speak nothing but good of the dead," is an excellent motto for a newspaper to keep in mind, and if you do not care to speak well of a man's memory silence is about the best course to pursue.

Broken Bridge.

A threshing machine belonging to the Trimmer Bros. went through on the east fork of the Carson river on Friday. The engine fell in such a way that it came near killing the driver, and everything was left a wreck. The bridge has been old and rotten for a long time, and its fall surprised no one. The owners of the machine will sue Douglass county for damages.

School Books.

We have on hand at the Pioneer Book Store of J. G. Fox, a complete stock of all books used in the schools of this State. Also a full line of school stationery at reduced prices. Harper's New Geographies exchanged for Cornell's.

P. B. ELLIS, Agent.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

AT ELKO

The Anti-Adams Men Confident of Success.

Special to the APPEAL.

ELKO, Sept. 8.—The little town presents a scene of unusual activity today, being full of delegates, candidates and wire workers. It is now pretty well admitted that Adams has lost his fight. He looks careworn and dejected, and his friends notice with alarm that his usual buoyancy of spirit has left him.

Warren Sheridan of Storey, Saddler of Eureka, Col. Ellis and John Sweeney of Ormsby, and the Winters and Cannavan men are fighting him hot and hard. It was whispered last evening that some of the Storey delegation were strong Cannavan men and would lead the retreat for Adams.

Mason is making a lively fight, and his friends claim that he will be nominated on the first ballot by four or five majority. It was rumored this morning that Colonel Hardin would be in the fight, and if there was no nomination on the first ballot Mason would turn his vote over to Hardin, and that he would be the nominee.

Charley Stoddard and Black Wallace are in town picking up points, but apparently taking no active part in the fight.

The knowing ones claim that there will be no nomination on the first ballot if Hardin comes into the fight.

SECOND DISPATCH.

The absence of Keating of Storey county, who was one of Adams' leading men, materially weakens his fight. Keating is sick in Virginia City, some say purposely, but this is not probable as Adams helped him get the complimentary vote for Senator two years ago. It is now proposed to have Adams placed at the foot of the ticket. This is done by the express wish of all the candidates. They say that Adams has promised all of them his support in exchange for theirs, and they propose to put him in a position where he cannot wiggle out. They propose to make him deliver his goods first. If this is done he will be beaten to a certainty, as some he has made promises to are bound to get left, and they will retaliate. If the Adams men are strong enough to control the order of business and prevent this it will show pretty clearly that Adams can hold his delegates and win. The C. P. train is reported five hours late, and has a good many delegates aboard from the Western part of the State.

The Wizzard Oil Opera.

The Wizzard Oil concerts are drawing great crowds of people in Virginia City, and advertise in the Enterprise that they will give similar performances in Carson, just outside the city limits.

The reason for this is that the Wizzard Oil Company do not want to pay the $10 nightly license charged by this city, and propose to get beyond the city jurisdiction. The proprietor of the APPEAL, ever appreciative of musical effort, has tendered the Company the gratuitous use of ten acres of ground near the North Carson mine, where the operatic tent will be erected.

The tenor of the Company has a voice that will tax the limit of all known registers, and the basso profundo sounds the lowest depths of the trade.

The concert will positively open here on Friday, and the admission will only be 50 cents. Shaw's buses will convey the patrons of the Oil to the private boxes. Bottles of Wizzard Oil distributed to the audience free of charge.

State Convention Delegates.

The following is a list of the delegates to the State Convention, which will be voted for at the Primaries on Saturday:

Carson Precinct—E. R. Elrod, T. R. Hofer, W. M. Little, George C. Thaxter, P. A. Doyle, George Hark, C. W. Thompson, A. Livingston.

Empire Precinct—James Morris, J. P. Woodbury, John Barclay.

The above ticket was selected by the Ormsby county candidates for State offices.

So Say We All.

The Dayton School Trustees sent their orders to a foreign office, and then asked the home paper for complimentary puffs. The home paper replied: "Dayton teachers better get their puffs where they get their printing done." So say we all.

A Nice Plan.

Mugwump—See here, we'll fix up a ticket that no sane man can object to and you fellows endorse it, that will beat the Republicans best.

Democrat—Why not let us fix up a ticket and let you fellows endorse it. Won't that work just as well?

Mugwump—Yes, you know, but we have arranged this thing and some of our friends have counted on it, so much that they will be greatly disappointed if they don't get office.

Democrat—You've played that fixing up business a good many times and you always get left. Now what do you call that ticket you are getting up?

Mugwump—(with a sly wink) The Anti-Chinese Non-Partisan ticket.

Democrat—Oh, you do. I thought the League was non-partisan.

Mugwump—So it is.

Democrat—Then why in thunder do you put up tickets?

Mugwump—To catch the non-partisan vote.

Democrat—But the democratic vote a'int non-partisan, and don't you forget it.

Mugwump—But you Democrats need not take any active part in the campaign except vote.

Democrat—Oh, I see, and you fellows don't propose to take any active part in the matter except—hold office.

Mugwump—Well 'er, perhaps that's about it.

Democrat—Say Cap., just listen to me. If I'm going to be licked I'd just as leave be licked as a Democrat as to be licked as a Mugwump. Our party organization is a griffe older than yours and we propose to preserve it.

An Implement of Utility.

The other day the Superintendent of the Mint saw a spade inside the yard, and calling Watchman Burke asked him what it was.

"A spade, sir," said Burke. "Indeed," said the Major, examining it carefully for a few minutes as he added:

"Put it in a conspicuous place and it will help to advertise me with the labor movement."

A Cattle Killing Case.

News comes from Paradise that John Geoppner was arrested last week for butchering a yearling steer, the property of Harvey Brothers, and held to answer before the Grand Jury in the sum of $1,000. The complaining witness, Walter Reed, was accused by Geoppner of assisting him in killing and dressing the steer, and his examination is set for to-morrow before Justice Case.
